

BIRDSEYE VIEW
PAN-AMERICAN EXPOSITION
MAY 1ST TO NOV. 1ST 1901.

NIAGARA LITH CO. BUFFALO, N. Y.

WHAT TO SEE IN BUFFALO.

Pan-American Exposition Site, North Park—Take any car marked for Pan-American.

74th Regiment Armory—Take Niagara Street Car.

65th Regiment Arsenal—Broadway or Michigan Car.

Public Parks—The Front, Porter Ave. to river, Niagara Car; North Park, the finest in the City, Forest Ave., Main St. or Elmwood Ave. Car; South or Cazenovia, South Buffalo, Seneca or Elk Street Car; Humboldt Park, Genesee or Best Street Car.

Fort Porter, detachment of U. S. Infantry—Niagara Car to Porter Ave.

City and County Buildings—Square bounded by Franklin, Church, Eagle Sts. and Delaware Avenue.

U. S. Government Buildings—Old Post Office, cor. Washington and Seneca Sts.; New Post Office, Square bounded by E. Swan, Ellicott, S. Division and Oak Sts.

Art Gallery and Library—Lafayette Square, opposite the monument, cor. Broadway and Clinton Sts.

Masonic Temple—Niagara St., two blocks from Main St.

State Hospital—Forest Ave. Take Elmwood Ave. Car.

The Zoo—Delaware Park. Take Main St. Car.

Theatres—STAR, cor. Pearl and Mohawk Sts.; LYCEUM, Washington, near Broadway; SHEA'S, Pearl, near Niagara; TECK, Main and Edward Sts.

Niagara Falls—One hour's ride by trolley or steam cars.

Railway Stations:—NEW YORK CENTRAL, or Union, Exchange St.—New York Central, West Shore, Lake Shore, Michigan Central, Northern Central, Western New York and Pennsylvania, Grand Trunk, Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg. ERIE STATION, Exchange and Michigan Sts.—Erie, Wabash, Nickel Plate. LEHIGH VALLEY STATION, Washington and Scott Sts.—Lehigh Valley, Grand Trunk. LACKAWANNA STATION—Foot of Main Street.

The Merchants, Manufacturers and Bankers of the City have decided to co-operate in showing attention to their out of town customers who visit Buffalo during the Pan-American Exposition.

Acting under the auspices of the Buffalo Merchants Exchange, it has been decided to maintain during the Exposition, headquarters in room 37 Board of Trade Building, Corner of Seneca and Pearl Sts., for the use of visiting customers.

These rooms have been suitably equipped and furnished with stationery, telephone, stenographic facilities, etc.; also a competent attendant and messengers to serve callers.

You are hereby invited to use these rooms free as headquarters during the Exposition. Make use of the conveniences for receiving and answering mail. Use them as a bureau of information. A register will be maintained of all those who call and leave their address.

Hope you will avail yourself of these privileges and that we may have the pleasure of seeing you.

Kurd & Hauenstein